

With 3 x 3 threads I found these 17 ways for the threads to cross each other (when keeping to the rules of the twill and satin weaves). Because of the rules it is basically just the topmost row where differentiation counts, all the other rows follow according to the rules.